

SOCIETY

RELATIVES and friends of popular hostesses are receiving invitations to the Thanksgiving dinner according to the old custom. The New England families always hold a family reunion on the last Thursday of November and with a table spread with all manner of delicious viands give thanks to the Giver of all Good as did their ancestors over a century ago.

It is all very well to unite the family on this day and rejoice over the occasion by thinking of the many lonely young men and women who through force of circumstances are in Honolulu and who are unable to unite with the happy home family. For them Thanksgiving day is rather "blue" and thanks hardly seem in order. There are a number of hostesses here who invite to their Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners the immediate family and as many young men and women in the city as they can accommodate. If these lonely ones cannot be in their own homes on the day of Thanksgiving, they can at least be in another home.

It is a pretty sentiment, that of being surrounded by one's whole family, but then such a gathering might as well take place on some other chosen day of the year.

Mrs. J. G. Rothwell Entertains at a Swimming Party and Chowder Supper.

On Saturday evening Mrs. J. G. Rothwell entertained informally at a chowder supper in honor of her son, Guy Rothwell, who celebrated his birthday on Saturday. The guests arrived in the moonlight and after partaking of a delicious chowder, played games on the lawn of the Outrigger Club. Among those present were Mr. Guy Rothwell, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Gere, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Alexander, Miss Gertrude Turner, Miss Genevieve Young, Miss Elizabeth Pratt, Mrs. L. F. Turner, Miss Jessie Baldwin, Mr. F. L. Hadley, Mr. E. Hadley, Mr. De Witt Alexander, Mr. Douglas Baldwin, Mr. J. Spaulding, Mr. Dwight Baldwin, Mr. Farran Turner and Mr. Curtis Turner.

Fort Ruger Bridge.
The Fort Ruger Bridge Club will meet this evening with Lieutenant and Mrs. Baker at their quarters at Fort Ruger.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland to Wed.
NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Announcement of the engagement of Mrs. Grover Cleveland, wife of the late president of the United States, to Professor Thomas J. Preston, Jr., of Wells College, was made tonight by President Hubert of Princeton University, a mutual friend of Miss Cleveland and Prof. Preston. The date of the wedding will be announced later.

Prof. Preston first met Mrs. Cleveland at Princeton, where he was taking a special course in 1906. He went out into the society of the university town a good deal. Later a mutual interest attracted them to each other, for Professor Preston took the chair of archaeology at Wells College, the alma mater of Mrs. Cleveland, in which she has always been greatly interested.

Mrs. Cleveland is 48, two years younger than Professor Preston. She was born on July 21, 1864. Professor Preston did not enter Princeton until he was 40 years old, because sickness in his youth had caused him to give up the hope of completing his education.

Mrs. Cleveland's wedding to President Grover Cleveland, which took place in the executive mansion during his first administration, was one of the notable events in the history of the White House. Her father, Oscar Folsom, was a law partner of Cleveland, who upon Folsom's death in 1875, became Frances Folsom's guardian.

After his retirement from the presidency Cleveland made his permanent home in Princeton, and Mrs. Cleveland has continued to reside there since the former president died in 1908. Her two daughters, Esther and Marian, and her son, Richard F., are living with her here.

The announcement of the engagement was made by President Hubert of Princeton University, who said: "Professor Preston is 50 years of age. He is a graduate of Princeton and one whom we hold in very high esteem. As a young man he began his university studies at Columbia, which, however, were interrupted on account of illness. At that time he gave up the idea of completing his education and went into business, in which he made a very rapid and notable success, and being himself at the head of a prosperous manufacturing company in Newark, N. J.

"After securing a substantial fortune and feeling keenly that continued business success could not compensate for his abandoned college career, he determined to attain a long-desired end which his earlier years had denied him. Although nearing the age of 40, he nevertheless closed his active business career and went abroad to study for two years at the Sorbonne, Paris.

"Returning to America, he came to Princeton for two more years of additional study. On account of the wide range and unusual excellence of his work both in undergraduate and graduate studies he took at the same commencement not only the degrees of LL.B., but the degree of M. A. as well, a unique attainment.

"Professor Preston was exceedingly popular and made many friends while at Princeton. He was subsequently appointed Fellow of the American School of Classical Study at Rome and later won in a competition open to all universities of the United States the fellowship of the Archaeological Institute of America.

"After pursuing his studies abroad he returned to Princeton and took his degree of doctor of philosophy. He was then called to his present professorship of Wells College.

"Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Preston, Sr., live in South Orange, N. J.

Mrs. Cleveland was Frances Folsom, daughter of a law partner of Grover Cleveland, when Cleveland was mayor of Buffalo. Frances was sent to Wells College, Aurora, N. Y., not far from Cornell University, and she was there when her father died. Cleveland was made her guardian. He was so much struck with the beauty and common sense of his ward that he married her during his first term in the presidency. The marriage took place at the White House on June 2, 1886. After Cleveland's retirement the family lived at Princeton, N. J., where the ex-president made his home and where he died. After the death of Mr. Cleveland, it was found his estate was worth only about $250,000, a smaller amount than he had been popularly credited with acquiring. At a pension of $4000 a year was allowed to the widow of President McKinley, Garfield, Polk and Tyler, a similar sum was granted to Mrs. Cleveland.

For the last two years Mrs. Cleveland has spent much of her time in Switzerland, where her four children—Esther, Marion, Richard Folsom and Frances Grover—attended school.

Social Notes

Captain and Mrs. Wautig who have been visiting at the Moana Hotel, returned to their home in the Orient on Thursday. Captain Wautig holds an important position in the German Army. The table decorations for the dinner were yellow chrysanthemums. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klump, Mr. and Mrs. George Rodiek, Miss Bloch, Miss Cornet, Miss Miss, Mr. John F. Hackford, Mr. Mist and Captain and Mrs. Wautig.

It has ever been the custom of the High School Alumni to give a large dance a few days preceding their annual meeting. This year the affair will take place at the Moana Hotel this evening.

These affairs are always enjoyable and likewise well attended. The committee includes Miss Edith Smith, Mr. Charles Littlejohn, Miss Aileen Nott and Mr. Pan King. About four hundred invitations have been issued.

A most enjoyable one act farce was presented by the Maui Literary Society last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Millie Hall in Hamakua.

Before the performance two musical numbers were rendered by Miss Helen Coulter and Mrs. W. S. Nicoll. Miss Coulter played two different piano selections and Mrs. Nicoll sang two solos. "The Butterfly Song" and "I'm Talking in My Sleep."

The members of the cast acquitted themselves with credit and their work was appreciated by the audience. After the entertainment refreshments were served to the eighty odd guests who were present.

The Dramatic Personae included:

Horatio Thomas Sparkins
Mr. Worth Aiken
Jeremiah Pivitt
Mr. Pohn Patterson
Major Volley
Mr. Cross
Aunt Charlotte
Mrs. Edward Boyum
Miss Fanny Volting
Miss Derling
Mathilda, the maid

Time—Present.
Scene—London, England.

The ladies of the St. Clement's Guild have been busily engaged for weeks in dressing dolls for their coming sale to be held on Friday, December 6. They have a very choice assortment of all sizes including:

"Dressed" dolls and "character" dolls
Girl dolls and ladies
Celluloid and bisque dolls
Boy dolls and babies
The baby dolls with their baskets and outfits are particularly fascinating and every little girl in Honolulu will want to have a doll's Teddy bear.

There will also be a quantity of extra clothes, on hand, and little girls will be able to secure their doll's winter outfits ready-to-wear.

Mrs. J. W. Beardsley, who is visiting in Honolulu for a few days, was the guest of honor at a bridge luncheon on Thursday afternoon, at which Mrs. Arthur Wall was hostess.

Mateo Sandona, the portrait painter of Venice, Italy, will arrive here shortly before Christmas to paint a number of pictures of Honolulu society folk. While here he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr.

Mr. Worth Aiken of Maui is spending a few days in Honolulu.

Miss Dorothy Guild, of Honolulu, and Miss Helen Coulter of San Francisco, are the house guests of Mrs. W. A. Baldwin of Hailu, Maui.

Mrs. Lackland has as her houseguest Mrs. F. W. Beardsley, who was a resident of Honolulu a number of years ago.

Mrs. Beardsley spent the week end at the Volcano house.

Mrs. Lackland has issued invitations for a bridge party to be given at the Country Club Friday in honor of Mrs. F. W. Beardsley, her houseguest.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Murphy and Miss Thelma Murphy were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wichman on Sunday on a trip around the island.

During the absence of her husband Mrs. Kenneth Barnes has as her houseguest Miss Arthur, a member of the faculty of Oahu College.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Campion, who spent the week end at the Volcano, returned in the Kilaua on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rodiek motored around the island on Sunday with a number of friends.

Mrs. John Dyer is entertaining on Monday afternoon for Mrs. F. W. Beardsley.

Miss Charlotte B. DeForest, who visited Dr. and Mrs. Doremus Scudder for a few days last week, was a departing passenger in the Chiyu Maru on Thursday.

Mr. Albert and Mr. Le Roy Bush are issuing invitations for a dance to take place on the thirtieth of November.

Captain and Mrs. Wautig who were guests at the Moana Hotel for a short time were departing passengers in the Chiyu Maru Thursday enroute to the Orient.

Mrs. James B. Castle will return to Honolulu shortly before Christmas.

Since her return from England, Mrs. George Davies has been the motif of many delightful entertainments.

Mrs. F. W. Beardsley, who has been visiting Mrs. Lackland of this city for the past week and for whom so many entertainments have been arranged, will leave Honolulu on the twenty-sixth.

Social Notes From Hilo.
[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
HILO, Hawaii, Nov. 22.—Without question the tournament which took place last Sunday at Laupahoehoe for the E. O. Hall tennis cup was cause of the most successful tennis day ever seen on this island. Not only was the class of tennis good but the interest taken was unusual and with perfect train arrangements, fine weather and a large attendance, everyone enjoyed the event. The winners of the Hall cup, Messrs. Fred Irwin and Stanley Clarke, of Hilo, played excellent tennis and deserved the victory but the really surprising showing of the tournament was made by Messrs. Anderson and Silver, of Papekou, who played far beyond the expectation of the spectators.

During the day a meeting of the players and others interested took place at which the following trustees of the Hall Cup were selected to keep the interest stirred up and bring the various districts closer together in tennis than they have been in the past. The start made resulted in the competition between Hamakua, North Hilo, South Hilo and Puna, this being the first time that all these districts have been represented in any one tournament. The trustees selected were as follows: chairmen, Mr. Rolph of Hilo; Messrs. Clarke, of Oahu, Anderson, Papekou; Martin, Papekou; Beveridge, Honolulu; Thompson, Hakalau; Williams, Laupahoehoe; Lawson, Oahu; Patten, Papekou; Boyle, Honolulu; Donald, Kukuhaele. The following executive committee to settle upon the terms and conditions under which the cup shall be played for and to receive challenges and arrange for matches which may result was also appointed: Messrs. Moses, Conness and F. Irwin.

A dance for the benefit of the Kalaupapa Church at the Molokai Settlement will be given on Saturday evening at the Armory. Admission of seventy-five cents for gentlemen will be charged and the Gummie musical club will furnish the music.

Mrs. P. T. Forrest is receiving the entries for the "500" tournament which will be part of the entertainment

Social News From Washington

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11.—Miss Eleanor Wilson, who in a few months will call the White House her home, is an earnest student of art, and is a pupil at the Philadelphia Fine Arts Academy. She entered the upper section of the antique drawing class two years ago. She is the youngest of the three sisters of the family of President-elect Wilson, and shares with him a taste for serious things, and is quoted as having said that the social side of Washington did not especially appeal to her. She, however, had a delightful view of social life in Philadelphia, and enjoyed it, too, during her last two years' residence there.

The social season opened at Fort Myer when the officers and ladies of the post gave an informal dance, to which the guests went in costume. Mrs. Garrard, wife of the commandant, received, and, like Miss Garrard, was in colonial dress.

Lieut. and Mrs. George Patten entertained at a buffet supper before the dance, to which all the officers and their families were invited; and Maj. John H. Allen entertained at a similar supper when it was concluded. The hall was decorated with autumn leaves and flags.

The Duchesse de Chaulnes of Paris, formerly Miss Theodore Shonts, who is spending a few days in Washington enroute to New York from the Virginia Hot Springs, will be at the Hotel Powhatan for the remainder of her stay. She has been at the Grafton, accompanied by her small son, the Duke de Chaulnes, since her arrival.

On their return to New York, they will join Mrs. Shonts and Miss Marguerite Shonts, who have taken apartments at the Ritz-Carlton for the winter.

The engagement of Miss Edwina Thornburgh of St. Louis to marry Sir Wilfred Peek, an English baronet, was announced at a tea at the home of Miss Thornburgh's mother, Mrs. William C. Stirling, 23 Portland place, St. Louis. The wedding will take place in the spring.

Miss Thornburgh's fiancé is twenty-eight years old and is a lieutenant in the 1st Devon Yeomanry Cavalry.

Miss Thornburgh is a daughter of the late Henry Thornburgh.

One of the latest names to be added ment for the Hilo Dramatic Club on the evening of Nov. 30. All the arrangements for the dance are going along very well and many tickets are being sold. In fact a larger attendance than at any previous gathering of this kind is already assured.

Norman Campion, formerly engineer at Papekou and soon to leave for the Philippines, made a round trip to this city, from Honolulu, returning last Monday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Campion, spending Sunday and Monday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Curtis, at Kivistown and also visiting the volcano.

Manager Colin McLennan of the Laupahoehoe Sugar company, with his wife and daughter, was a town visitor on Wednesday.

Maui Women Give Bazaar.

WAILUKU, Maui, Nov. 22.—The bazaar of the women's guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd held last Saturday night at the Alexander House gymnasium was a great success. The gymnasium was lighted brilliantly for the occasion by the placing of two large lights over the floor. All the usual lamps were ablaze. Booths were located in three places in the gymnasium proper, while the refreshments were served from the gallery. A large number of people came from out of town. Never had so many automobiles been lined up on that portion of Market street before. About nine o'clock dancing began. The musicians were placed in the middle of the floor and people danced around them. This was a decided novelty and it took.

All who attended had a good time, and the ladies were jubilant over the large sum of money realized. Over five hundred dollars were taken in the evening of the affair, and it was understood that more might come in later.

"Literary" at Hamakua.

The "literary" of Puna and Makawao was held last week Friday night at the home of Mrs. Amelia Beckwith Hall in Hamakua. In spite of the severe storm of the day and the showers of rain, about 75 people were present. The chief feature of the evening's fun was a farce given by local talent. The entertainment was greatly appreciated.
